

Seeking Math Tutor for TRIO Upward Bound Program Kent Meridian High School

The University of Washington's Office of Minority Affairs & Diversity is seeking a mathematics tutor for Upward Bound high school students at Kent Meridian High School. Upward Bound serve low-income/first generation college students to help them prepare for success in college.

Math subjects include Algebra I and II, AP statistics, geometry, and pre-calculus. Tutoring will occur after-school in the Kent Meridian High School Classroom. Lunchtime tutoring is also a possibility. The position starts asap – through mid-June.

Qualifications and experience: Valid Washington teaching certificate preferred. (College level teaching experience or demonstrated teaching and tutoring experience at the high school level can substitute for certification). At least one year tutoring or teaching with a diverse population and/or similar age group as the UB target population.

Time Commitment & Compensation: 3 hours a day/twice a week $23/hour DOE.

How to apply: Position available until filled. Please send a cover letter and resume to Roseann London by Friday, October 19 at rmlondon@uw.edu. Visit us at <https://www.washington.edu/omad/upward-bound/>

University of Washington is an affirmative action and equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, age, protected veteran or disabled status, or genetic information.