Page Designer
Hourly Pay: $11
Average Hours per Week: 10-12

Page designers are responsible for designing and laying out pages under the direction of the Layout Manager and Editor-in-Chief in accordance with Ledger style rules.

Duties and responsibilities:

- Page designers must attend and participate in the weekly production of the Ledger. They are also responsible for attending weekly staff meetings.

- Lay out a minimum of two pages per issue during production week as assigned at the weekly meeting by the Layout Manager or Editor-in-Chief.

- Page designers are expected to finish assigned pages by the Saturday (8:00 p.m.) before each publication date.

- Coordinate with the Copy Editor, Section Editors, Layout Manager, Photo Editor, and Editor-in-Chief to make necessary edits to copy and layout during production.

Contact Matthew McIlney at ledger@uw.edu to apply or to receive more information.