GET INVOLVED: UWT'S INSTITUTE FOR GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT
IGE at a Glance

The Institute for Global Engagement promotes partnerships across industry and academia and collaborations across disciplines, to develop the best thinking and action on global issues.

Such partnerships and collaborations, combined with a rigorous curriculum that provides a deep cultural and critical understanding of the world, benefit all UWT students and deeply enrich the Global Honors Program that anchors it.
Goals

• Expand the Global Honors curriculum
• Create funded research opportunities open to all UWT undergraduates
• Enhance advising and support for study abroad
• Develop a Community Engagement Program to open up the classroom to the world
Curriculum

• Current (all core sections doubled starting Fall 2014):
  • Global Scholar Pathway (21-24 credits)
  • Global Leadership Pathway (17-22 credits)
  • Global Citizenship Pathway (12-17 credits)
  • Global Engagement Minor (25 credits and above)

• Under development:
  • Freshman Honors (TGH 100; TCORE 133)
  • New core seminars (TGH 304; TGH 305)
  • New capstone experience (TGH 390)
Community Engagement

• External Partnerships
  • Bamford Foundation
  • Maritczak Legal Group (MLG)
  • Russell Investments
  • Wells Fargo
  • JBLM

• UW Partnerships
  • Office of Global Affairs (OGA)
  • UWS Honors Program
  • The Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies
  • UW Center for Commercialization
  • UWT Office of International Programs
Undergraduate Research

• The Bamford Fellowship in Global Engagement
  • Annual fellowship awarded to three globally-focused research teams, each consisting of 2 students and 1 faculty advisor
  • Funding: $2,000 per student; $1,000 per faculty advisor
  • Eligibility: currently open to Global Honors students, but developing ways to open this opportunity to the entire campus

• Core Course Paper Competition
  • Quarterly award presented to 2 students nominated by faculty
  • Funding: $500 per award
  • Eligibility: currently open to Global Honors students, but developing ways to open this opportunity to the entire campus
