Description of Organization: Charles Wright Academy is a private independent day school for college-bound girls and boys from junior kindergarten to grade 12, with an elementary school, middle school and high school on one campus. We are a diverse and inclusive learning community using the power of academic rigor, endless inspiration, and high expectations to help students reach their intellectual, artistic, and athletic best. The school's 100-acre campus is located in Tacoma.

Responsibilities of Intern: One-on-one tutoring for a 10th grade student who continues to struggle with learning Spanish in a traditional classroom setting. The student will enroll in an online beginning Spanish class and the Intern will assist the student in completing course requirements and gaining more independence in learning and using Spanish by meeting once a day during school hours for approximately 45 minutes. Materials will be provided.
