The University of Washington Tacoma’s Education Program offers this scholarship for a graduate student enrolled in or applying for the Teacher Certification Program to obtain an initial teaching certification. It is the donors’ intent that preference for selection be given to graduate students from diverse ethnic backgrounds.

The scholarship will be awarded to a student based on academic merit, and additional preference shall be given to students who demonstrate a capacity, through their personal background and/or professional record, to contribute to the diversity of the University community and whose future professional contribution in the field of education are likely to benefit a diverse population of students.

Provided that a recipient has made acceptable progress toward his or her degree, this fellowship may be renewable, however priority may be given to support a student who has not yet attained a Washington elementary or secondary teaching certificate.

Criteria
- Quality of personal essay
- Academic merit and ability to maintain good academic standing
  - Acceptance in the UW Tacoma Education Program Teacher Certification Program
  - Preference may be given to students from diverse backgrounds
