Request for Distance Learning Designation
University of Washington Tacoma
(replaces course change/DL supplement form )

The University of Washington Tacoma wishes to request Distance Learning (DL) designation to be made available for sections of the following course to be taught fully online. Online sections will have the same learning outcomes as the on-ground course on record, and the master course experience for online sections has been designed to match all requirements and goals of the official course syllabus and course catalog description on record.

Prior to course delivery, to ensure course readiness and quality of the online experience, the online master course will be peer-reviewed using the national Quality Matters rubric (http://www.qmprogram.org/) and passing all required components of the quality course review.

Will this course be offered on the quarter calendar?   Yes:   ____   No: _____

DL courses not offered on the quarter calendar must specify a maximum term (not to exceed six months) for the student to complete the coursework.
