

Privacy Policy

The University of Washington Tacoma is committed to protecting your privacy. This privacy policy notifies you of information collected through this site, how such information is used, and the security policies that are in place to protect the loss or misuse of information under our control.

Our online purchasing forms may require users to provide contact information that may include name, email address, billing and/or shipping address, and other information as appropriate. We do not request or store sensitive information from our visitors, such as social security numbers. All credit card transactions are PCI compliant. All information provided on forms is transmitted using SSL (Secure Socket Layer) encryption. SSL is a proven system that lets your browser automatically encrypt, or scramble, data before you send it to us. We also protect information by placing it on a secure portion of our site that is only accessible by certain qualified employees of the University of Washington. All sales information will be retained and stored in a secure and responsible manner according to the University of Washington General Records Retention Schedule.

Customer information may be used by the University to advise customers of new options, service changes, and special events or other activities that could affect supply of or access to resources. In certain emergency situations, information may also be used by UW Tacoma to contact specific customers. Customer information is also used to enforce program policies.

UW Tacoma may access and disclose your personal information if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) confirm to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process ; (b) respond to a court order or other governmental or law enforcement authority or regulatory agency; (c) protect the rights, property, or safety of UW Tacoma and our students, faculty, staff, and community partners.

By using this online purchasing tool, you confirm your acceptance of the University of Washington website Terms and Conditions of Use and Online Privacy Statement.
