Subject: Prepare for Spring 2021 Registration

Spring Quarter Registration begins February 12 by class level.

Before you register

- Sign into MyUW to complete the required pre-registration steps.
- Find your registration date.
- Review important spring deadlines.
- Browse the Spring 2021 Time Schedule to find classes or use the Quick Search for each in finding courses by program or school.
 - You can use the Quick Search to find courses designated as community-engaged learning (service) or undergraduate research (research), and courses offered in-person or via remote instruction.
- Seek virtual guidance with your advisor if you need assistance or have questions about course prerequisites.
- Be prepared to make course enrollment requests directly with the academic program if the course requires an entry code.
- Check your tuition balance. Holds may be placed on your registration and academic records if you have an outstanding balance for tuition or fees.

Featured Highlights

University Academic Advising

Drop-in Advising is available for pre-majors on February 22 - March 3 at 1:00 - 3:00 pm. For other advising support, Live Chat is available. Pre-majors should update intended majors on the Registration webpage in Student Personal Services.

Commencement 2021

Plans are underway for the 2021 Commencement Ceremony for Friday, June 11th! Students who earned a degree in Autumn 2020 and Winter 2021, or have applied to graduate for Spring 2021 or Summer 2021, are eligible to participate. Spring and summer graduates should complete a graduation application with their advisor by April 16th. For additional details, visit the Commencement website.

Placeholders on the Time Schedule

Placeholders are courses “under construction.” They appear on the time schedule as 100 or 500 level courses. Check the comment section for detailed course information.

Going to Campus?

Follow the three W's: Wear a mask, wash your hands and watch your distance. Masks are required for all instructors, staff and students within buildings and outdoors when maintaining six feet of distance is not possible. You will need your Husky ID card to get access to the buildings.

- Husky ID cards are required
 - To access buildings, bring your Husky Card to campus. If you are a continuing student whose Husky Card was issued in the last 4 years you will use your Husky Card to gain access into buildings. Learn how to obtain a Husky ID card during restricted operations.
 - Need a place to study? Visit the Campus Study Spaces webpage to learn about options for studying on campus.
