ACADEMIC LEARNING AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Academic learning objectives should include the new knowledge you expect to acquire, the skills you want to learn or enhance, and areas of competence or abilities you seek to develop or improve. Community engagement integrates experiential learning and community service in an academic context. Through activities and experiences mutually negotiated between academic and community partners, community engagement addresses identified needs, enhances curriculum, and fosters civic responsibility.

Civic Identity: Demonstrate active civic engagement in society.

Cultural Humility: (a) Examine the ways one's own attitudes and beliefs are different from those of other cultures and communities. (b) Value learning about and from the perspectives of diverse communities and cultures.

Perspective Taking: Identify, explain, apply and evaluate multiple perspectives to understand community strengths and address community needs.

Systems Awareness: Propose solutions aimed at addressing historic and contemporary role and effect of economic, political, and social structures on experiences of individuals and communities.

Integrative Learning: Articulate the relationships among learning in the course with community engagement and other experiences.

In the space below, after consultation with your site supervisor and your faculty supervisor, please a) describe the project and the activities you will engage in and skills you expect to develop/improve and b) explain how the project will address at least two of the community engagement learning objectives listed above.

Objective #1 Describe project, activities, and skills:

Community engagement learning objective #1 and how project will address this learning objective:

Community engagement learning objective #2 and how project will address this learning objective:

(Optional) Community engagement learning objective #3 and how project will address this learning objective:

ACADEMIC ASSIGNMENT: This is a mandatory deliverable project in the form of a paper, poster project, video, etc. Specify your assignment(s) and a timeline for completing them (use a separate sheet of paper if necessary).
