Dude!!!
What the hell was that??

It's a good thing
I'm not wearing pants, bud, 'cause
you literally just scared the shit outta me!!

It can speak?
IT?!!?
You do know that I can hear you, right?

OHHHH... Sorry...
BEERS LATER...

Oh, oh, oh, oh... Let me get this straight. You've been in a bunker, underground, for twenty years?!!

Yup.

Before your kind launched all these nukes and destroyed their whole civilization? Hic

And you're telling me that you just ran out of food?

Yesh.

Wow!!! That's... that's amazing! You're probably, like, the last man on the planet or something. We should probably keep you away from all this unsploded ordinance.

Huh? Tink
Is anyone else feeling like that was inevitable?
