Learn to think critically and communicate effectively, while developing a broader understanding of our world. UW Tacoma’s career-focused majors will help you gain the creative skills needed for a wide variety of professional careers in high-demand fields:

- Advertising Executive
- Publicist
- Corporate Spokesperson
- Technical Editor
- Historian
- HR Specialist
- Journalist
- Research Archivist
- Museum curator
- Intelligence Officer
- Public Relations
- Digital Communication Manager
- Teacher
- UI/UX design

QUESTIONS?
Contact an admissions advisor, we are happy to help!

uwtinfo@uw.edu OR 253-692-4742

tacoma.uw.edu/admissions
ARTS, HUMANITIES & COMMUNICATION

- Arts, Media and Culture BA
  Focuses on how art and media operate within and transform culture. Learn to interpret literature, visual art, film, music or other media.

- Communication BA
  Develops theoretical knowledge and practical skills in mass media through an interdisciplinary, multicultural curriculum.

- Ethnic, Gender and Labor Studies BA
  Examines how communities form and are transformed, with a focus on the relationship between social class, race and ethnicity, and gender.

- Environmental Sustainability: Communication BA
  Prepares you to understand, analyze, and solve environmental and sustainability challenges combined with communication training.

- Global Studies Concentration BA
  Explores artistic, cultural, political and economic patterns in an international context. Study one or more world regions or specific themes.

- History BA
  Analysis of roots and causes of contemporary issues in society, politics, and culture; identification of the forces behind social change and transformation, and differing forms of identity.

- Interdisciplinary Arts and Sciences BA
  Provides broad exposure to key areas of knowledge within the arts and sciences, while stressing their interconnectedness. Emphasizes interdisciplinary skills and thinking needed to function successfully in a rapidly changing world.

- Spanish Language and Cultures BA
  Develops Spanish language skills, intercultural competence, and knowledge of cultural, historical, and political contexts of Spain and the Americas. All upper-level courses are taught in Spanish.

- Writing Studies BA
  Learn to write dynamically in a range of genres for diverse audiences, and to think critically and creatively, with a well-rounded liberal arts education in the sciences and the humanities.

For more info or how to apply:
tacoma.uw.edu/admissions