ARE YOU READY?

2021 - 2023
RESOURCE GUIDE FOR
STUDENTS, FACULTY & STAFF
In case of an emergency, always dial 9-1-1 first
EMERGENCY KIT

- First aid kit (bandages, adhesive bandages, antiseptic, etc.)
- Sunglasses and sunglasses case
- Rain gear (jacket, pants, hat)
- Non-prescription reading glasses
- Headlamp and extra batteries
- Pocket knife
- Whistle with lanyard
- Emergency blanket
- Small first aid kit
- Battery-powered or crank-type radio
- Extra food and water
- Extra clothes
- First aid kit
- Multi-tool
- Flashlight with extra batteries
- Basic first aid kit (ibuprofen, aspirin, adhesive bandages)
- Maps (paper, electronic, etc.)
- Portable charger

ONLINE SAFETY

- Never share your card or payment information
- When using a public or classroom computer, always completely log out of the website and computer before leaving
- Never open any attachments or links

PARKING SAFETY

- Park your vehicle in a lighted and heavily traveled area at night and early morning

POWER OUTAGE

- The building goes out in your building
- Look for directions on the emergency signs in the building
- Use your best judgment when you leave the building

VOLCANIC ERUPTION

-Volcanic eruptions can be accompanied by other natural hazards, such as landslides, mudflows, ash and/or gas plumes, and pyroclastic flows
- If you are in a vehicle, remain inside and try to block off all vents and doors
- Avoid all vehicles and climb as far above as possible
- Be aware of mudflows, they can move faster than you can run
- Always lock your vehicle, even when you are inside

WEATHER

- If severe weather makes it unsafe to travel to campus, the university will announce either a delayed opening, early closing or suspension of operations, decisions will be communicated by email at 6 a.m. or 2 p.m.
- Be aware of conditions that your home and/or campus may be different. Use your best judgment about getting to campus
- If you are in a vehicle, try to stay out of the car and find shelter

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

The University of Washington is committed to providing a safe, healthy, and productive work environment that is free from violence or threats of violence. Violence or threatening behavior that involve physical, sexual, or emotional abuse. All employees have the right to work in an environment that is free from violence or threats of violence. The University has a workplace violence prevention plan that is in place to prevent and respond to workplace violence.

If you are in a vehicle, stay in your vehicle and call campus police. If you are outside, call 9-1-1 immediately.

SEXUAL ASSAULT & RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE

Sexual assault describes any type of sexual activity that lacks consent. This includes sexual intercourse, oral sex, and sexual penetration that is forced or coerced. Sexual assault can be any form of physical, sexual, psychological, or emotional abuse. Relationship violence occurs when one person in a relationship physically, sexually, or emotionally abusive. Relationship violence occurs when one person in a relationship physically, sexually, or emotionally abusive. Relationship violence occurs when one person in a relationship physically, sexually, or emotionally abusive. Relationship violence occurs when one person in a relationship physically, sexually, or emotionally abusive. Relationship violence occurs when one person in a relationship physically, sexually, or emotionally abusive.

STALKING

Stalking is unwelcome, repeated, and continuing conduct directed at a person that endangers or seriously甸 intimidating behavior that is substantially similar to that of sexual assault. Stalking can also include threats, harassment, or fear of violence. Stalking is a crime.

STUDENT IN DISTRESS

If you are in contact with a student who appears to be in a situation where there may be an immediate threat to your safety or the safety of others, please call 9-1-1.

STAND UP TO STALKING

If you or someone you know is being stalked, it is important to take action to ensure your safety and the safety of others. Stalking is a crime.

TIME-OUT

If you are in contact with a student who appears to be in a situation where there may be an immediate threat to your safety or the safety of others, please call 9-1-1.

DON'T BE A VICTIM

Stalking is a crime.

THREAT PREVENTION

Most crimes reported by the police involve either personal or public safety issues.

If you are in contact with a student who appears to be in a situation where there may be an immediate threat to your safety or the safety of others, please call 9-1-1.

If you are in contact with a student who appears to be in a situation where there may be an immediate threat to your safety or the safety of others, please call 9-1-1.

If you are in contact with a student who appears to be in a situation where there may be an immediate threat to your safety or the safety of others, please call 9-1-1.

If you are in contact with a student who appears to be in a situation where there may be an immediate threat to your safety or the safety of others, please call 9-1-1.

If you are in contact with a student who appears to be in a situation where there may be an immediate threat to your safety or the safety of others, please call 9-1-1.

If you are in contact with a student who appears to be in a situation where there may be an immediate threat to your safety or the safety of others, please call 9-1-1.
if I get sick. I plan on getting a flu shot during hall in case there is an emergency or other information.

(In Case of Emergency) if I am injured and I have an entry in my cell phone for ICE My roommates and close friends know how to contact me in case of emergency. I have an entry in my cell phone for ICE.

Please consider taking a CPR/first aid class. Where to go next if I have a plan on how many times.

Follow @uwtacoma on Twitter and @uw on Facebook.