Class of 2020 program onlineClass of 2021 program online

Congratulations, Class of 2022!

Congratulations, as well, to the Classes of 2021 and 2020 who, due to the pandemic, did not have a chance to enjoy an in-person Commencement. Many of them are with us today.

The members of these classes have been incredibly resilient during uncertain times.

In the midst of COVID-19, racial violence, economic instability and so many other challenges their ability to adapt and achieve their goals is truly inspiring.

I joined the UW Tacoma community in the fall of 2021. Commencement 2022 marks my first with this community. In the relatively short time I have been here, I have come to see UW Tacoma as a beacon showing the way forward, for our region and for the world.

To our graduates, I am so proud of you. You will change the world not just with what you have learned at UW Tacoma, but because you have persevered on your educational journey in the midst of turmoil.

You will take your hard-won knowledge and use it to make better lives for yourselves, your families and your communities, a change of trajectory that will resonate for generations to come.

As you walk across the stage you might experience a magic moment as you realize this important milestone of earning a degree. We will see the joy in your faces. We will listen for the joy in the reactions of your families, friends and loved ones who are with you in this moment.

These are hard-won and well-deserved moments of celebrating the work that brought us here. And, in celebrating, we also recognize that the work continues. As graduates of UW Tacoma, you have a responsibility to look around you for that which seems unfair, unjust, inequitable – and set out to fix it.

I am confident you will be a force for change.

Congratulations!

Sheila Edwards Lange, Ph.D.
Chancellor

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The academic dress worn by scholars originated in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars usually were clerics as well, and they adopted dress similar to that of their monastic orders. Buildings were cold and drafty, so caps and warm, floor-length capes with hoods were necessities. As control of education passed from the churches, the dress was modified in various ways, and there was great diversity in the color and style of cap, gown and hood worn at different institutions. In 1895, a standardized code of academic dress was established that is followed by most colleges and universities in the United States.

At the University of Washington, the bachelor's and master's gowns are black. The doctoral gowns are purple with purple and gold hoods and are distinguished by three velvet chevrons on each sleeve. The matching mortarboard or tam has a long tassel, and is worn over the left side of the cap. The colors of tassels or hoods are distinctive of the candidate's academic program (in most cases). Honor cords identify students who are graduating with academic honors and are worn loosely around the neck and hang down in the front.

ABOUT THE MACE

University of Washington ceremonial occasions begin with the entrance of the University Mace, carried by the faculty marshal, Dr. Turan Kayaoğlu, Professor, School of Interdisciplinary Arts and Sciences. A mace was originally a weapon used by mounted knights for protection. It since has become a symbol of authority indicating that the proceedings to follow have official sanction. The current mace was presented to the University by the Alumni Association in 1961.

Awards & Recognition

Each year at Commencement we recognize outstanding faculty and students. These awards are symbolic of the many hundreds of public servants and thousands of students at UW Tacoma working together to foster a thriving and equitable society.

DISTINGUISHED RESEARCH AWARD

This award recognizes a faculty member with a record of notable scholarship or creative activity, has generated new knowledge or creativity that impacts their intellectual discipline, and has contributed to the intellectual climate of the UW Tacoma campus and its communities.

Dr. Erin Casey, Professor, School of Social Work & Criminal Justice, has been published in more than 60 peer-reviewed publications and has been cited more than 2,400 times. Casey's research focuses on violence prevention and engaging communities in prevention strategies. Her current research examines men's involvement in anti-sexual and domestic violence movements. Casey has over 10 years of clinical experience doing intervention, prevention and administrative work in the fields of sexual and domestic violence.

DISTINGUISHED TEACHING AWARD

The award recognizes a faculty member who demonstrates a mastery of their subject matter, the ability to engage diverse students both within and outside of the classroom, and strives for innovation in course design.

Dr. Claudia Sellmaier, Assistant Professor, School of Social Work & Criminal Justice, incorporates high-impact practices such as service learning and independent mentored projects in her teaching. Each of her classes has some component of community engagement, serve learning or "real world" application built into the curriculum. Sellmaier regularly receives strong course evaluations from her students who report feeling respected, included, supported and encouraged to try new things. During her time at UW Tacoma, Sellmaier has created and implemented new coursework at both the undergraduate and graduate level in the field of disability studies.

DISTINGUISHED COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AWARDS

The Distinguished Community Engagement Award recognizes the important and innovative community-based work being done by faculty at UW Tacoma.

Dr. Sharon Laing, Associate Professor, School of Nursing & Healthcare Leadership, believes in working with community organizations to improve the well-being of the members who they serve. Laing recently partnered with HealthPoint Community Health Centers on a project to evaluate the patient experience at HealthPoint during the pandemic. Laing hired a group of BIPOC Healthcare Leadership students to assist in conducting patient interviews. These students also helped with data analysis.

Previously, Laing collaborated with HealthPoint on a bi-coastal study (Washington state, Washington, D.C.) that looked at patients' perceptions about the value of digital healthcare management tools in health promotion and chronic disease prevention.

Dr. Anaid Yerena, Associate Professor, School of Urban Studies, seeks to foster connections between students, community members and decision makers with the goal of addressing key social issues including affordable housing.

Yerena pairs students in the Master of Arts in Community Planning program with local non-profits including Citizens for a Healthy Bay and Downtown On the Go! Students work with the community partners to learn about one of the programs the organization runs. Students used this information to develop a tool that the organization could then use to complete a process evaluation of their chosen program. Separately, students in one of Yerena's courses created and distributed information about the Husky2Husky Homesharing program on social media as well as at events.

CHANCELLOR'S MEDAL

The Chancellor's Medal recognizes an individual who has been a consistent source of inspiration for faculty and fellow students alike, and who has overcome significant obstacles in order to complete a degree.

Bengisu Cicek Incetas graduates from UW Tacoma with a bachelor's degree in Law and Policy. Born in Istanbul, Turkey, Cicek moved with her family to the United States and eventually settled in Yakima. Cicek is passionate about human rights and plans to pursue law school in the future. While on campus, Cicek worked for the student newspaper, The Ledger. She also served as Legislative Liaison for ASUWT. Cicek has been active in the Muslim Student Association and served as the group's President during her junior year. This past year she worked as a Student Retention and Community Development Assistant at the Center for Equity & Inclusion on campus.

PRESIDENT'S MEDAL

The President's Medal recipient is selected from graduating seniors with the most distinguished academic record. This year's medalist earned a 4.0 GPA.

Andre Luis Jimenez graduates with a bachelor's degree in Law and Policy. Jimenez attended Foss High School and completed his associate's degree at Tacoma Community College. A first generation student, Jimenez served as ASUWT Senator for the School of Interdisciplinary Arts & Sciences and later as ASUWT President. He is both a Dressel and Truman Scholar, the latter is a highly competitive national honor. Off campus, Jimenez worked as a Commissioner on the City of Tacoma's Human Rights Commission. This fall the father of three will attend Princeton University on a full scholarship and is interested in pursuing a joint Juris Doctorate/Master of Public Administration degree.

STUDENT SPEAKER PURPLE CEREMONY

Kristina Pogolian graduates with a bachelor's degree in Politics, Philosophy, and Economics. Pogolian transferred from Tacoma Community College, where she served as Student Body President, interned for the State Board for Community and Technical Colleges, and passed statewide policies that make college more affordable and accessible. In July 2020, Governor Inslee appointed Pogolian to the University of Washington's Board of Regents, becoming only the second UW Tacoma student to hold that position.

Outside of the university, Pogolian served as a policy consultant with the Washington Student Achievement Council, a session aide with the Washington State Senate, and the founder and chair of Washington's Armenian Church Youth Organization.

STUDENT SPEAKER GOLD CEREMONY

Dustin Ray graduates with a bachelor's degree in Computer Science & Systems and a minor in mathematics. The first-generation college student is one of six siblings. Born in Colorado Springs, Colorado, Ray and his family moved to Washington when he was five years old. Ray completed his associate's degree at Tacoma Community College through the Running Start program.

While on campus at UW Tacoma he was honored to work with some incredibly talented students and faculty from all over the world who are doing fantastic research at the intersection of cryptography and artificial intelligence. Ray is interested in doing privacy-related AI research either with a company or in graduate school.
