Open Public Forum

Old Business

- The meeting time has been set to 4:15pm to 5:15pm on Fridays for the Spring Quarter.
- Discussion of Annual allocations
 - Student Publications
 - Daniel spoke to 10/20/30% budget cuts
 - 20% budget reduction would reduce a staff member, cut hours
 - 30% would reduce the production run and could possibly become an online-only publication
 - Library Student Advisory Board (New)
 - Asking for $3820 dollars to fund 7 positions as an advisory board ($200 per quarter for 8 hours of work)
 - May go down to 5 positions if there needs to be reduction, but they do not believe it will be diverse enough.
 - They are hoping to establish the structure of the advisory board with this round of funding.
 - UWT Undocumented Initiatives (New)
 - $5036 is requested to fund a peer success mentor
 - With reductions the students may not be paid as much as they should for the level of work they will need to perform.
 - There is no place on campus for this category of students.
 - VRMC
 - $126,110 has been requested. Many of UWT's students are veteran associated.
 - UWY and Dawg House
 - The biggest cost is the wage increase.
 - The event coordinator position is going to take on some more responsibility.
 - Major reductions will affect hours on the Dawg House and the CSI.
 - First Gen Fellows
 - 54% of body is first gen student
 - They are funding five positions
 - Giving Garden
 - Funding 2 student positions and a part time position

- They have a lot of volunteers that help with the maintenance of the garden
- Husky Success Fund
 - Helps supplement any lack of career guidance.
- Office of Global Affairs
 - They generally have 7-12 students participate.
 - They had up to 35 participants' when they went to Bellevue Snowflake Lane.
 - Requesting funds for their Japanese and Korean lessons.
