KEVA MILLER

Welcome to the School of Social Work and Criminal Justice at the University of Washington Tacoma. I am proud of our innovative and unique multidisciplinary school, that is committed to pillars of academic excellence through research, instruction, and community engagement. Whether you are interested in pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in Social Welfare or Master of Social Work degree, you will find a community of diverse scholars and leaders who are devoted to your personal, intellectual, and professional growth. Paramount is student success, and we look forward to you joining us in advancing our mission, priorities, and values.

THE UW TACOMA SCHOOL OF

Social Work & Criminal Justice

The social work programs at the UW Tacoma SSWCJ are accredited by the Council on Social Work Education as program options under the auspices of the University of Washington School of Social Work in Seattle. That means we are among the best in the world. We are committed to social justice as the foundation for engaging with our students, one another, and the communities we serve and prepare you to be providers of social services through a combination of field experience and classroom learning. We offer a bachelor of arts degree in social welfare and a master of social work degree.

PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

Practicum is an internship experience where students have the opportunity to apply classroom learning to practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, communities, and policy makers. This happens in a “real world” setting at a local service organization under the supervision of an experienced social worker. Through practicum, students build skills and experience to be successful in the field as professional social workers.

BSW/BASW GRADS can earn their part-time Advanced Standing Master of Social Work degree at UW Tacoma in 15-18 months!

UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON | TACOMA

MASTER OF Social Work

Developed in collaboration with the School of Social Work on the Seattle campus, the part-time UW Tacoma Master of Social Work (MSW) program prepares learners for integrated specialized practice as providers of social services. Graduates will have the knowledge and skills to address their topic in depth, while actively integrating the relevant practice concerns, policies, issues of diversity and social justice, research evidence, and the community contexts impacting their chosen topic.

GENERALIST INSTRUCTION

The first half of the curriculum provides the basic knowledge of history, skills and values required for beginning social work practice. Topics include applied research, social policy and content in social work practice models, methods and a 400 -hour student practicum experience allowing students to immediately apply what they have learned in social work settings based in our community.

INTEGRATIVE PRACTICE SPECIALIZATION

The mission of the Integrative Practice Specialization is to prepare MSW-level practitioners to assume leadership roles in the design, delivery, and evaluation of interventions at all levels of practice, from work with an individual client to community advocacy or policy analysis.

Students focus their advanced course of study in an area of particular interest to them. These areas might include, but are not limited to, behavioral mental health and health care systems, child welfare, school social work and veterans. MSW students develop knowledge and skills to address their topic in depth, while actively integrating the relevant practice concerns, policies, issues of diversity and social justice, research evidence, and the community contexts impacting their chosen topic. A 680-hour specialization practicum experience is also completed putting the classroom learning into practice.

ADVANCED STANDING MSW

Designed for eligible* BSW or BASW graduates, our Advanced Standing MSW allows students to enter the specialized level of the MSW curriculum and complete their degree in five or six quarters depending upon individual schedules. Advanced Standing MSW students follow the integrative practice specialization and complete a specialization practicum.

*A degree accredited by the CSWE. A non-U.S. degree considered to be equivalent by the ISWDRES may be accepted in lieu of a U.S. degree. Advanced Standing applicants who graduated more than five years ago should demonstrate continued professional growth through social work experience.
