

2023-2024 MARC WALTERS BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SCHOLARSHIP FOR CRIMINAL JUSTICE, SOCIAL WORK, AND SOCIAL WELFARE STUDENTS

As a result of a generous donation from Marc Walters, the University of Washington Tacoma School of Social Work and Criminal Justice is offering scholarship opportunities in the amount of $1000 each to UW Tacoma students enrolled in social work, social welfare and criminal justice degree programs who are working or have an interest in utilizing behavioral health skills in their future employment. This includes de-escalation skills, anger management, addictions treatment, stress and coping, mindfulness, treatment adherence, crisis intervention, etc.

Application procedures are described below. Eligible applicants are students continuing their degree progression in Winter quarter 2024, when the scholarship funds will be awarded. Successful recipient(s) will be encouraged to write a “thank you” to the donor.

Eligibility Criteria:

- ✚ Currently enrolled University of Washington Tacoma CJ, BASW, or MSW students in good standing at the time of scholarship application with successful completion of at least one quarter of coursework in their major/program by the time of the scholarship disbursement.
- ✚ Continuous enrollment from Fall quarter 2023 through Winter quarter 2024.

Application Procedure:

To apply for this financial support, applicants must provide the following information to the School of Social Work & Criminal Justice by email to swcj@uw.edu:

- ✚ Completed application form (p. 2 of this document).
- ✚ An unofficial UW Tacoma transcript (downloaded from MyUW).
- ✚ A personal statement addressing your interest in and goals related to behavioral health, and how you plan to utilize behavioral health skills in the field upon graduation from UW Tacoma. The length of the statement should be 1-2 pages, typed, double-spaced, with 11 or 12 point font.

Application Deadline: Sunday November 12th, 2023 (by midnight).
