Reports & Updates:

- Chair: Working with STFC and ASUWT to find a date for the Spring Forum. Tentatively set for May 13th from 12pm-1:30pm.
- Vice Chair: None
- Subcommittees: No
- Members: Sean: Spring allocation’s are in. Sam: Working on Operations Manual draft and how it would look incorporating the bylaw changes.

Old Business:

- a. Annual Allocations
- b. MEDEX Status Update

- i. Cherie shared that there has been lots of communication between Slyvia James, Joe Lawless, as well as other leadership on how the funds might be exchanged. The Seattle campus SAFC voted not to fund the item next year. No contact from Ryan Wicklund since. Still an ongoing process. Sean will connect with Mentha in order to find ways to bridge the gap.
- c. UWT Minimum Wage
  - i. Cherie shared that complications and questions arise around compensation through the proposed phasing in of raising up until it matches Seattle's Minimum Wage. Projections show the additional cost each year. A letter of support to the Chancellor could be helpful to the Chancellor to show that the committee is informed. It may be wise to ask the proposers and ask how it would affect the program.

New Business:

Discussion Items:

Sean mentioned that it is time to start thinking about appointing members for next year.

Adjournment: With business completed, Colin adjourned the meeting at 4:16 pm.
