LOST AND FOUND

UWTacoma has a centralized lost and found in the Campus Safety office (Ogden 100). Students who have lost items, such as wallets, purses, laptops, etc., should contact Campus Safety. Students who find such items should notify Campus Safety in addition; consider notifying credit card companies, your bank, etc., as appropriate.

Lost, stolen, or found items should be reported to the Office of the Registrar (601 N. 18th Street).

SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING

Did you see something suspicious when you were going to class or going about your business?

Then say something to the police to make it right. Report suspicious activity, behavior, individuals, or items to 9-1-1 and Campus Safety & Security.

The University community is encouraged to participate in the U.S. Department of Homeland Security’s “See Something, Say Something” program that seeks assistance of the public in the fight against terrorism.
