Washington’s Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA)

- Passed in 1971
- Requires meetings to be open to the public, gavel to gavel
- RCW 42.30
Purpose

• “The people do not yield their sovereignty to the agencies which serve them.”
• “The people, in delegating authority, do not give public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know.”
• “The people insist on remaining informed so they may retain control over the instruments they have created.”

~ RCW 42.30.010
Purpose (Cont.)

• Public commissions, boards, councils, etc. listed in OPMA are agencies of this state that exist to aid in the conduct of the people’s business.
• Their actions are to be taken openly and deliberations conducted openly.
  ~ RCW 42.30.010

• Act is to be “liberally construed.”
  ~ RCW 42.30.910

• The purpose of the OPMA is to allow the public to view the “decisionmaking process.”
  ~ Washington State Supreme Court
Open Government Laws Like the OPMA are Often Called “Transparency Laws” or “Sunshine Laws”

This is because they “shine light” on government. U.S. Supreme Court Justice Louis Brandeis once famously said, "Sunlight is the best disinfectant."

Transparency builds public confidence in government.

• Any subagency of a public agency which is created by or pursuant to statute, ordinance, or other legislative act, including but not limited to planning commissions, library or park boards, commissions, and agencies.
• Any policy group whose membership includes representatives of publicly owned utilities formed by or pursuant to the laws of this state when meeting together as or on behalf of participants who have contracted for the output of generating plants being planned or built by an operating agency.

  - Public testimony
  - All deliberations
  - Discussions
  - Considerations
  - Reviews
  - Evaluations
  - Final actions

The requirements of the OPMA are triggered whether or not “final” action is taken. See upcoming slide on “final action.”

- A “meeting” of a governing body occurs when a majority of its members (quorum) gathers with the collective intent of transacting the governing body’s business.

  ~ Citizens Alliance for Property Rights Legal Fund v. San Juan County

• Physical presence not required – a meeting can occur by phone or email. 📞 📧

• An exchange of e-mail could constitute a meeting if, for example, a quorum of the members participate in the e-mail exchange & discuss agency business. Simply receiving information without comment is not a meeting.

  ~ Wood v. Battle Ground School District; Citizens Alliance for Property Rights Legal Fund v. San Juan County

• Does not need to be titled “meeting” – OPMA also applies to “retreats,” “workshops,” “study sessions,” etc.

• No meeting occurs if the governing body lacks a quorum.
Final Action

• “Final action” is a collective positive or negative decision, or an actual vote, by a majority of the governing body, or by the “committee thereof”
• Must be taken in public, even if deliberations were in closed session.
• Secret ballots are not allowed.

~ RCW 42.30.060, RCW 42.30.020
Travel and Gathering

• A majority of the members of a governing body may travel together or gather for purposes other than a regular meeting or a special meeting, so long as no action is taken.
• Discussion or consideration of official business would be action, triggering the requirements of the OPMA.

~ RCW 42.30.070
