CHECKLIST - Filling a Staff Position

DEVELOP THE POSITION

- Consult with HR for appropriate job classification and pay information.
- Develop job description and review with HR:
  - Classified position descriptions consist of the following elements: 1) General purpose of the position; 2) Specific responsibilities; and 3) Minimum requirements. Consult classified job specifications for examples of work and requirements.
  - Professional staff positions require completion of the Professional Staff Position Description Form for evaluation by the UW Compensation Office to ensure that new professional staff positions are exempt from classified service. Consult professional staff position benchmark descriptions and UW professional staff job descriptors (as available) for examples of work and requirements.
- Complete and route Request for Authorization for Recruitment/Hire Form along with the job description.
- Email job description in Word format to UWT HR.
- UWT HR creates (or updates) the position and initiates the requisition in Workday upon receipt of the approved Authorization Form and completed job description.

PREPARE FOR THE RECRUITMENT

- Schedule a briefing with HR to develop a recruitment plan using the Recruitment Planning Worksheet.
- Review the Diversity Toolkit.
- Develop a rubric based on the job description for evaluating candidates.
- Identify and brief Search Committee as appropriate (search committees are not required).
- Develop behavior-based interview questions for knowledge, skills and abilities that are critical for the position’s success.

RECRUIT FOR THE POSITION

- Upon Workday approval, the position is posted on UW and UWT web site
  - Posting is based on job description. The department may develop a customized posting draft.
- Posting dates:
  - Classified positions must have a closing date.
  - Professional positions may remain open until filled, include a priority consideration date or have a closing date.
- Identify other sources for advertising the position (paid for by the department); may include listservs, job boards, websites, individual outreach, etc. May be placed by the department and/or search committee.

SELECTING THE CANDIDATE

- Read through all the resumes/cover letters and evaluate candidates based on developed rubric.
- Select candidates for interview based on the job requirements and responsibilities.
  - A telephone screen tool may be used to further narrow the pool for interview candidates.
  - IMPORTANT: Recruitments for positions covered by the SEIU Local 925 bargaining unit require an interview of at least ONE employee currently covered by the bargaining unit (if any have applied and are qualified).
