LOCATION
1119 Pacific Ave. Suite 1400, Tacoma, WA 98402

DESCRIPTION
The Northwest Immigrant Rights Project’s Tacoma office provides legal services to non-detained immigrants in the South Sound region and immigrant detainees at the Northwest Detention Center (NWDC), which holds up to 1575 detainees, 90% of whom are unrepresented. Both the Tacoma office and the NWDC are a 45-minute commute from downtown Seattle.

Interns will work under the supervision of attorneys and advocates at the Tacoma office. The majority of intern projects are completed in the office as our access in the detention center is limited. Intern responsibilities may include the following:

- Translations;
- Online country conditions research;
- Contacting law enforcement agencies for records;
- Creating information packets;
- Logging Detainee Voicemails (must be fluent in Spanish);
- Interpretation for Detainees: in Person
- Clerical Work (filing, data entry, etc.);
- Court Observation (attending hearings and taking notes for NWIRP)
- Assisting with application and declaration transcription

PROFESSIONAL REQUIREMENTS
- Demonstrated commitment to immigrant rights and willingness to support NWIRP’s mission, vision and values;
- Minimum commitment of ten hours a week for a total of fourteen weeks;
- Excellent written and oral communication skills, and ability to organize information in a clear and concise manner;
- Commitment to working in a diverse working environment;
- Ability to manage multiple tasks and to manage deadlines;
- Strong organizational skills and ability to work independently;
- Substantial proficiency in use of web-based software, MS Word and MS Excel;
- Applicants proficient in a second language, especially Spanish, are preferred

ACADEMIC CREDIT
This internship/volunteer opportunity is unpaid, but NWIRP will work with applicants to secure academic credit when possible.
