TEDUC 563: Returned to Education program for resubmission to April meeting. Justification provides no actual justification for why the class should be offered—a listing of other courses in the sequence is not a justification. Evaluation criteria (section 4c) do not equal 100% and do not include all the things on which students are being evaluated (e.g., participation is missing). In syllabus, please remove "Attendance and promptness are exemplary" from the Evaluation Criteria.

3. Other Business

Jose read a memo of responsibility from Julie Buffington regarding Autumn 2008 course changes.

Patrick let us know that the online template for course submission is nearly done. He will be meeting with Program Administrators and other appropriate personnel over the next few weeks. He hopes to bring the final product to the April meeting for discussion of piloting procedures.

TSPAN 483: The requested information was provided to Seattle, but no decision has been communicated back to campus. It appears very unlikely this course will be offered in Summer 2008.

4. Next Meeting

The next meeting is scheduled for April 23, 2008, 12:45-2:00 pm in CP 206C.
